

BREITENWAIDA - WEINVIERTEL

Grüner Veltliner Weinviertel^{DAC} 2012

Tasting Notes

Shiny golden with green nuances, fresh yellow and juicy fruits, red ripe pomegranate, yellow apple and elegant white blossom, full-bodied and mineralic on the palate, lively structure and acidity as well as a long finish

Analysis - Facts

Alcohol content: 12,5 % vol., acidity: 5,7 g/l, residual sugar: 1,7 g/l (dry)

Serving suggestion

The Grüner Veltliner Weinviertel DAC is regarded as all-rounder because it fit so well with Austrian as well as international cuisine. Because of it's structure and minerality this wine harmonises perfectly with meat dishes. The wine's fresh fruit- and citric aromes also make deliciously delightful complements to seafood or Asian dishes. The same is true for vegetable dishes and dishes with white meat.

